H2R CPA ANNOUNCES NEW PARTNER
Cara M. Colavita Second Female Partner in Firm's 63-Year History

Pittsburgh, PA – January 2020 – H2R CPA announced that Cara M. Colavita, CPA, was promoted to Partner effective January 1, 2020. Cara is the second female partner in the firm's 63-year history. In her new role, Cara will work closely with the current head of the firm's Accounting & Assurance department to transition responsibilities and over time eventually assume those duties.

"Cara has proven herself to be a talented and trusted leader of the firm. She is also amazingly efficient and well-respected by clients," said Paul Rudoy, Managing Partner of H2R CPA. "We are confident that she has a bright future ahead in this new leadership role," he added.

"I am honored to join the partner team at H2R CPA," said Cara. "I look forward to taking on new responsibilities while maintaining close relationships with my clients. I am also excited by the opportunity to inspire other women to embrace the accounting profession as a career where women have the ability to rise into leadership positions," she continued.

Cara Colavita joined H2R CPA in 2007 after graduating from West Virginia University with a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting. She became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in 2011. Over the course of the past twelve years, she has worked with clients in a variety of industries, including closely held businesses, manufacturers, distributors, rental real estate, professional service organizations and fraternal benefit societies. Her specialties include supervision and training of team members as well as extensive interaction with clients to ensure the timely and proficient completion of fieldwork and financial report issuance.
